A Wild Blizzard Raging

brings danger, suffering—often death—to thousands, who take colds, coughs and lagrippe—that terror of Winter and Spring. Its danger signals are "stuffed up" nostrils, lower part of nose sore, chills and fever, pain in back of head, and a throat-grIPPING cough. When Grip attacks, as you value your life, don't delay getting Dr. King's New Discovery. "One bottle cured me," writes A. L. Dunn of Pine Valley, Miss., "after being 'laid up' three weeks with Grip." For sore lungs, hemorrhages, coughs, colds, whooping cough, bronchitis, asthma, it's supreme, 50c $1.00. Guaranteed by B. B. H. Gorrell, druggist.

Death of Mrs. E. T. Harris

Mrs. Parmelia V. Harris, wife of Mr. E. T. Harris, died at her home near Timber Ridge Sunday, July 3, 1910, aged 46 years. The remains were taken to Augusta county Monday and buried at the old Hildebrand graveyard near Waynesboro. Rev. Mr. Heatwell conducted the services. Her husband and eight children survive. She was a sister of Mr. Thomas J. Hildebrand of Lexington, who attended the funeral. Mr. Harris desires to thank his friends for their kindness and sympathy during his wife's illness.

Saved at Death's Door

The door of death seemed ready to open for Murray W. Ayers of Transit Bridge, N. Y., when his life was wonderfully saved. "I was in a dreadful condition," he writes, "my skin was almost yellow; eyes sunken; tongue coated; emaciated from losing 40 pounds, growing weaker daily. Virulent liver trouble pulling me down in spite of doctors. Then that matchless medicine, Electric Bitters, cured me. I regained the 40 pounds lost and now am well and strong." For all stomach, liver and kidney troubles they're supreme. 50c. at B. H. Gorrell's.

W. L. U. Alumni

A meeting of the W. L. U. alumni of Lexington district will be held Saturday next, July 16th, at 2 p. m., in the supervisors' room at the Courthouse, for the purpose of awarding the scholarship to Washington and Lee.

Are You a Paint Maker?

You don't have to be one in order to mix your own paint when you have a house to paint. It's mighty easy to buy 4 gallons of L. & M. Paint and 3 gallons of pure Linseed oil, and put both into a large pail and mix well together. You will then make 7 gallons of the best paint at a cost of about $1.30 per gallon and then have a good painter paint your house.

Get it from: McCrum Drug Co., Lexington, H. L. Gilkerson, Buena Vista.

Killed in Harrisonburg

J. Marshall Lee was shot and killed in Harrisonburg Monday by Pink Barber, a negro who was drunk. The murderer was rushed to jail and had a narrow escape from being lynched.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

The Coming and Going of People You Know

Postmaster McClung Patton was a visitor in Staunton last Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wise spent several days the past week at Natural Bridge.
Mrs. D. M. Barnard of Lexington, Mo., is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Turnbull.
Mr. Joseph De Young has returned from a visit to relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Weinburg, and children, are visiting relatives in Frederick, Md.

Mrs. A. B. Beckwith of Roanoke is visiting relatives in Lexington this week.

Mrs. P. C. Garing and Miss Margaret Garing have returned from a visit to Baltimore.

Assistant Postmaster E. L. Conner was a visitor in Richmond last week.

Miss Gertrude Ettinger is in Hagerstown, Md., visiting Mrs. J. W. Reiser and Mrs. Raymond Kent.

Mrs. Charles R. Deaver and family, Mrs. Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Deaver have gone to Wilson's Springs for a visit.

Mrs. McMath has returned to her home on Kerr's Creek, after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Dunlap, of near Mount Vernon.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard G. Lacy of Glen Wilton spent several days in Lexington this week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Ettinger.

Mrs. Y. M. Bickle and daughter, Miss Minnie Bickle of Staunton, have returned home after a visit to Mrs. R. G. Templeton.

Mrs. Martin Carabello of Tampa, Fla., pleasantly remembered here as Miss Stella Deisher, is a visitor in Lexington this week, accompanied by her two children.

Rev. John A. Anderson, presiding elder, will preach Sunday night at Trinity Methodist church, and hold quarterly conference Friday night.

Messrs. Walter E. Quisenberry and John F. Hatton are enjoying an automobile trip down the valley, and will visit Mr. D. B. Foltz in Rappahannock county.

Mrs. Mark Hattan of Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cummings of Collierstown and Mrs. Alfred Miller of Kerr's Creek, left yesterday for a visit of two months to relatives in Kansas and Oklahoma.

Mr. Ezra Lowman of Dayton, Va., spent last week in Lexington visiting his daughter, Mrs. Fred G. Quisenberry. Mr. Lowman spent some months in Lexington as a workman on the superintendents house at the V. M. I.

To Meet at Highland Belle.

Patrons and friends of Highland Belle school on Kerr's Creek will hold a meeting at the schoolhouse on Saturday, July 16, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of discussing the school situation in that neighborhood. The patrons of Union school will meet with Highland Belle people, and the question of consolidation and removal will be up for discussion.

It has been suggested that the convenience of the neighborhood would be best subserved by the removal of Highland Belle to some point down the creek, at Thompson's for instance.

The Fourth at Buena Vista

A large crowd was present at Buena Vista Monday to enjoy the excellent program arranged for the occasion. Good order prevailed. Showers somewhat interfered with the exercises.

Trap shooting: C. H. Dixon; trotting race, R. S. Walker; running race, Mr. Terrell; ladies' driving contest, Mrs. D. M. Bromley.

In the tournament, Henry Higginbotham was the victor, and Miss Mackey, of Timber Ridge, was crowned queen.

For Better C. & O. Service

The present C. & O. schedule is not at all satisfactory to the people of Lexington, and prospects are bright for an improvement in the near future.

In reply to a letter from Mr. J. McD. Adair, General Passenger Agent John D. Potts writes as follows:

"I have yours of the 30th ult., and am very glad to be able to inform you that within a few days we hope to adjust our schedule between Lexington and Lynchburg satisfactorily."

Miss Laird Married to Mr. Lackey This Morning

A marriage of interest to a wide circle of friends and relatives was that of Miss Nannie Parry Laird to Mr. William Horace Lackey, which was solemnized this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John E. Laird on Main street, Lexington. The affair was very quiet, and was witnessed by only the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The decorations were sweet peas and ferns.

The bride was becomingly dressed in white lingerie, trimmed in valenciennes and Irish crochet. Her ornaments were pearls and she carried bride's roses. Miss Margaret Witt presided at the piano and played the wedding march as the bridal couple entered the parlor. Rev. Dr. Alfred T. Graham, pastor of the Presbyterian church, was the officiating minister, and the impressive ring service was used.

The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. John E. Laird and Mrs. Laird and is quite attractive and popular. She graduated as a trained nurse from both the Columbia and Children's Hospitals of Washington, D. C., and has spent some years following that profession. At present she is a member of the examining board of graduate nurses of Virginia Association of Graduate Nurses.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. Hall A. Lackey of Timber Ridge, and for some years past has made his home in Lexington. He is a member of the Myers Hardware Company, Incorporated, of Lexington, and is a prominent and successful young business man.

Mr. and Mrs. Lackey left on a trip to Atlantic City and other northern cities. They will make their home in Lexington.

Among the out of town visitors were Miss Maria Moseley of Richmond, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Laird of Warm Springs, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Tufts of Norfolk, Va.

Rev. A. B. Obenschain Installed as Pastor in New York.

The many friends in Lexington and Rockbridge county of Rev. Arthur Bittle Obenschain, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Obenschain, of Kerr's Creek, will be interested to read the following notice, which appeared in the Flushing Evening Journal of Flushing, N. Y., of June 24, 1910, of his installation as pastor of a Lutheran church at College Point, a suburban town of New York city:

"At the installation of the pastorelect Rev. Arthur B. Obenschain, in the English Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Holy Spirit, on Wednesday evening, the service was well attended. Rev. S. G. Weiskotten, D. D., president of the Synod; Rev. H. P. Miller, president of the Conference; Rev. George C. Loos, field missionary of Brooklyn and Queens; Rev. E. E. Fisher, pastor of Trinity Church, Brooklyn, and Rev. M. Muller, pastor of the Church of the Incarnation, Brooklyn, were present. The choir of Grace Church, Brooklyn, and Miss Hammerstedt, of Manhattan, rendered the musical part of the service. After inspiring addresses, the president of the Synod performed the act of installation. The new pastor was then handsomely surprised by receiving a cash order for a clerical gown presented by the members and friends of the congregation and Lutheran League. After the services everybody was invited into the church parlors, passing a social hour with the pastors and enjoying ice cream and cake and other cooling refreshments, which the Lutheran League had liberally provided for."

Lexington Will Improve Streets.

Staunton Daily Leader: Lexington on June 15 voted a $25,000 bond issue for street improvement, and the chairman of the council committee on streets, Mr. Montgomery B. Corse, has just ended a visit to Staunton for the purpose of inspecting work here in that line, to guide him in work in Lexington if he likes what he has found here.

As a matter of courtesy, Mr. Charles E. Ashburner, city general manager, promised to run up to Lexington one day next week, at his own expense of course, and look over the ground and give Mr. Corse the benefit of his experience in street work. With $25,000 they are expecting to make a big impression on Lexington's streets.

Mr. E. A. Quisenberry is at Rockbridge Alum Springs.

MR. A. W. VARNER DEAD

Passed Away Saturday Morning at His Home

Mr. Andrew Wallace Varner died at his home on Main street, Lexington, Saturday morning, July 2, 1910, after an illness of some months. He was in his 79th year. The cause of his death was the infirmities incident to advancing age. He had been in failing health for several years. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon from Trinity Methodist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. William S. Hammond. Interment was made in the Lexington cemetery.

Among the many friends who were present at the services were a number of Confederate Veterans who paid their respects to the memory of one of their comrades.

Mr. Varner was born in Lexington November 19, 1831, and was a son of Charles and Sarah Wallace Varner and was the last of a large family. With the exception of the period of the Civil War, Mr. Varner spent his life in this community. In early life he was a carpenter and later was engaged in the cabinet making and undertaking business. In 1855 he succeeded his brother, Mr. John A. R. Varner, as commissioner of the revenue for Lexington district, and held this position until last January, when he resigned the office on account of failing health. He was also assessor for the town for many years, which position he also resigned in January.

Mr. Varner served with distinguished bravery as a Confederate soldier, being a member of the Rockbridge Rifles, Company H, 27th Virginia Infantry, Stonewall Brigade. He was severely wounded at Gettysburg leading his company as lieutenant in the fight. He also lost an arm in that fight and was also shot in the leg, and had to be carried from the field. He was captured and imprisoned at Johnson's Island, where he remained until the end of the war. It is a coincidence that his death occurred on the anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg.

Mr. Varner in 1868 married Miss Louise Adalaide McCaul of Lexington, who died October 10, 1906. Four children survive this union—Messrs. J. Dillard and J. Clinton Varner of Lexington, Mrs. Howard W. Amole and Mr. A. Wallace Varner of Clifton Forge. A daughter, Miss Mattie Varner, died the 14th of January last.

Nr. E. R. Flippo Married Today at Max Meadows

FAIRFIELD, July 5.—Mr. E. R. Flippo left Monday for Max Meadows, Va., where he will be united in marriage to Miss Nannie A. Kincaid on July 6th at her home by Rev. L. G. Matherson of the Presbyterian church. Immediately after the wedding they will leave for Ocean View and Atlantic City where they expect to spend 10 days. The bride is an accomplished young lady and a niece of Dr. Williams of Nelson county who represented his county in the State Legislature for several terms. The groom is a prosperous merchant and farmer of Fairfield.

A congregational meeting was held at the Presbyterian church here Sunday for the purpose of electing officers. Those elected Elders were Dr. D. H. McClung and Mr. Jno. E. Kyle; Deacons elected were Messrs. Farror, J. W. McClure and E. R. Flippo.

Rev. J. Spencer Smith, wife and daughter, Miss Nellie of Clio, Ala., are guests at Fairfield Hotel. Mr. Smith was former pastor of the Presbyterian church here and we are glad to welcome him in our midst. F. Cor.

The scholarship to Washington and Lee University was awarded by the Lexington Alumni Association last Friday afternoon to Mr. John Alexander Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Graham, of Lexington.

Dr. Burton, eye specialist, will be in Lexington (Dr. Laird's office) Thursday, July 12th, and Wednesday, the 13th, until noon.
